When you make a binary options trade you choose between two potential outcomes. If your prediction proves to be the right one, you take some profits from the trade, if it is wrong you lose your investment. The two outcomes that you can choose from in a binary options trade, relate to the potential change in the value of an asset over a set period of time.

Binary Options UK Guide - Trade Binary Options

So, when you are trading binary options there are two different possible outcomes from the trade. Much like flipping a coin, the first outcome is that you win and the second option is that you lose. There cannot possibly be any other outcome. Unlike flipping a coin though the odds of you winning and losing are not 50/50. This is because binary options have an underlying asset that you wager on such as oil, gold or a currency exchange.

A binary option is a financial exotic option in which the payoff is either some fixed monetary amount or nothing at all. The two main types of binary options are the cash-or-nothing binary option and the asset-or-nothing binary option. The former pays some fixed amount of cash if the option expires in-the-money while the latter pays the value of the underlying security. They are also called all-or-nothing options, digital options, and fixed return options. While binary options may be used in the
